

CAMERA & REPRODUCTION USE NOTICE

By using your camera, making, or receiving photocopies or other reproductions, you agree to the following:

- It is my responsibility to keep accurate citations for all items
- It is my responsibility to obtain permission to publish from copyright owners
- I will use the reproductions for my private study and research only
- I will not publish the reproductions, post them on the Internet, or exhibit them, without obtaining permission from the Swenson Center and copyright holder
- I will not donate, sell, or provide the reproductions to another repository
- I will handle the materials with care and according to library rules
- I will not bend or otherwise manipulate materials to get a better reproduction
- I will not use flash
- I will ask library staff for assistance with items in poor condition
- I will not photograph the staff, reading room, or other researchers
- I understand that the library reserves the right to deny permission to make photocopies or other reproductions of collection materials at its discretion

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
